

GROUP STEPPING STONES TRIPLE P

WHAT IS GROUP STEPPING STONES TRIPLE P?

Group Stepping Stones Triple P has been developed for parents of children with a disability. Stepping Stones Triple P has been evaluated with families of children with a range of disabilities (e.g. intellectual disability, autism spectrum disorders, cerebral palsy) and elevated levels of disruptive behavior. The program involves six (2 ½ hour) group sessions that educate and actively train skills, and three (15 to 30 minute) individual telephone consultations to assist parents to refine the use of their parenting skills and to develop independent problem solving skills. A full behavioral and family assessment is completed before and after the group sessions.

WHO IS IT FOR?

Parents or caregivers of children with a disability (up to 12 years of age) who benefit from this program are those that require or are interested in learning a broad-based range of parenting skills to promote child development and to manage mild to moderate level challenging behaviors. The program is appropriate to assist parents to prevent the development of problem behavior or to change problem behavior if it is occurring. Parents need to be able to commit to six group sessions and three telephone consultations.

WHAT IS COVERED IN SESSIONS WITH PARENTS?

Session 1: Positive parenting

This session provides parents with an introduction to positive parenting, causes of child behavior problems, setting goals for change, and how to keep track of children's behavior.

Session 2: Promoting children's development

During this session, the practitioner discusses how to develop positive relationships with children and how to encourage desirable behavior.

Session 3: Teaching new skills and behaviors

This session teaches parents a range of techniques to teach children with disabilities skills in a range of areas, such as communication, problem-solving, self-care, and self-regulation.

Session 4: Managing misbehavior and parenting routines

During this session, the practitioner offers strategies to assist parents with managing misbehavior during this session. Parents will also learn to develop parenting routines to encourage children to follow instructions.

Session 5: Planning ahead

This session covers family survival tips, identifying high-risk situations, and developing planning ahead routines to implement over the next few weeks. Parents also schedule and prepare for the telephone consultations.

Session 6-8: Implementing parenting routines 1-3

The telephone sessions begin with the practitioner providing assessment feedback to parents and noting progress that has been made. Then the sessions are designed to assist parents in implementing behavior change strategies in high-risk home and community situations (e.g. traveling on public transport, haircuts, therapy sessions). The practitioner uses the self-regulatory feedback model to help parents identify goals for change and a problem-solving approach is used to assist parents to fine-tune any areas of difficulty.

Session 9: Program close

Parents return for a final group session to review progress, look at ways to maintain changes, problem solve for the future, and to bring closure to the program.
